What You Should Know About EIV

A Guide for Applicants & Tenants of Public Housing & Section 8 Programs

What is EIV?

The Enterprise Income Verification (EIV) system is a web-based computer system that contains employment and income information of individuals who participate in HUD rental assistance programs. All Public Housing Agencies (PHAs) are required to use HUD's EIV system.

What information is in EIV and where does it come from?

HUD obtains information about you from your local PHA, the Social Security Administration (SSA), and U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS).

HHS provides HUD with wage and employment information as reported by employers; and unemployment compensation information as reported by the State Workforce Agency (SWA).

SSA provides HUD with death, Social Security (SS) and Supplemental Security Income (SSI) information.

What is the EIV information used for?

Primarily, the information is used by PHAs (and management agents hired by PHAs) for the following purposes to:

1. Confirm your name, date of birth (DOB), and Social Security Number (SSN) with SSA.
2. Verify your reported income sources and amounts.
3. Confirm your participation in only one HUD rental assistance program.
4. Confirm if you owe an outstanding debt to any PHA.
5. Confirm any negative status if you moved out of a subsidized unit (in the past) under the Public Housing or Section 8 program.
6. Follow up with you, other adult household members, or your listed emergency contact regarding deceased household members.

EIV will alert your PHA if you or anyone in your household has used a false SSN, failed to report complete and accurate income information, or is receiving rental assistance at another address.

Remember, you may receive rental assistance at only one home!

EIV will also alert PHAs if you owe an outstanding debt to any PHA (in any state or U.S. territory) and any negative status when you voluntarily or involuntarily moved out of a subsidized unit under the Public Housing or Section 8 program. This information is used to determine your eligibility for rental assistance at the time of application.

The information in EIV is also used by HUD, HUD's Office of Inspector General (OIG), and auditors to ensure that your family and PHAs comply with HUD rules.

Overall, the purpose of EIV is to identify and prevent fraud within HUD rental assistance programs, so that limited taxpayer's dollars can assist as many eligible families as possible. EIV will help to improve the integrity of HUD rental assistance programs.

Is my consent required in order for information to be obtained about me?

Yes, your consent is required in order for HUD or the PHA to obtain information about you. By law, you are required to sign one or more consent forms. When you sign a form HUD-9886 (Federal Privacy Act Notice and Authorization for Release of Information) or a PHA consent form (which meets HUD standards), you are giving HUD and the PHA your consent for them to obtain information about you for the purpose of determining your eligibility and amount of rental assistance. The information collected about you will be used only to determine your eligibility for the program, unless you consent in writing to authorize additional uses of the information by the PHA.

Note: If you or any of your adult household members refuse to sign a consent form, your request for initial or continued rental assistance may be denied. You may also be terminated from the HUD rental assistance program.

What are my responsibilities?

As a tenant (participant) of a HUD rental assistance program, you and each adult household member must disclose complete and accurate information to the PHA, including full name, SSN, and DOB; income information; and certify that your reported household composition (household members), income, and expense information is true to the best of your knowledge.

February 2010

Remember, you must notify your PHA if a household member dies or moves out. You must also obtain the PHA's approval to allow additional family members or friends to move in your home prior to them moving in.

What are the penalties for providing false information?

Knowingly providing false, inaccurate, or incomplete information is FRAUD and a CRIME.

If you commit fraud, you and your family may be subject to any of the following penalties:

1. Eviction
2. Termination of assistance
3. Repayment of rent that you should have paid had you reported your income correctly
4. Prohibited from receiving future rental assistance for a period of up to 10 years
5. Prosecution by the local, state, or Federal prosecutor, which may result in you being fined up to $10,000 and/or serving time in jail.

Protect yourself by following HUD reporting requirements. When completing applications and reexaminations, you must include all sources of income you or any member of your household receives.

If you have any questions on whether money received should be counted as income or how your rent is determined, ask your PHA. When changes occur in your household income, contact your PHA immediately to determine if this will affect your rental assistance.

What do I do if the EIV information is incorrect?

Sometimes the source of EIV information may make an error when submitting or reporting information about you. If you do not agree with the EIV information, let your PHA know.

If necessary, your PHA will contact the source of the information directly to verify disputed income information. Below are the procedures you and the PHA should follow regarding incorrect EIV information.

Debts owed to PHAs and termination information reported in EIV originates from the PHA who provided you assistance in the past. If you dispute this information, contact your former PHA directly in writing to dispute this information and provide any documentation that supports your dispute. If the PHA determines that the disputed information is incorrect, the PHA will update or delete the record from EIV.

Employment and wage information reported in EIV originates from the employer. If you dispute this information, contact the employer in writing to dispute and request correction of the disputed employment and/or wage information. Provide your PHA with a copy of the letter that you sent to the employer. If you are unable to get the employer to correct the information, you should contact the SWA for assistance.

Unemployment benefit information reported in EIV originates from the SWA. If you dispute this information, contact the SWA in writing to dispute and request correction of the disputed unemployment benefit information. Provide your PHA with a copy of the letter that you sent to the SWA.

Death, SS and SSI benefit information reported in EIV originates from the SSA. If you dispute this information, contact the SSA at (800) 772-1213, or visit their website at: www.socialsecurity.gov. You may need to visit your local SSA office to have disputed death information corrected.

Additional Verification. The PHA, with your consent, may submit a third party verification form to the provider (or reporter) of your income for completion and submission to the PHA.

You may also provide the PHA with third party documents (i.e. pay stubs, benefit award letters, bank statements, etc.) which you may have in your possession.

Identity Theft. Unknown EIV information to you can be a sign of identity theft. Sometimes someone else may use your SSN, either on purpose or by accident. So, if you suspect someone is using your SSN, you should check your Social Security records to ensure your income is calculated correctly (call SSA at (800) 772-1213); file an identity theft complaint with your local police department or the Federal Trade Commission (call FTC at (877) 438-4338, or you may visit their website at: <http://www.ftc.gov>). Provide your PHA with a copy of your identity theft complaint.

Where can I obtain more information on EIV and the income verification process?

Your PHA can provide you with additional information on EIV and the income verification process. You may also read more about EIV and the income verification process on HUD's Public and Indian Housing EIV web pages at: <http://www.hud.gov/offices/pih/programs/ph/thiip/iviv.cfm>.

CERTIFICATION OF VICTIM STATUS

VAWA gives housing agencies and owners the discretion to provide benefits to an individual based solely on the individual's statement or other corroborating evidence. However, the Act also permits housing agencies and owners to request that victims attest to their status by signing a HUD-approved certification form. The form must meet the following standards:

1. It must require the individual signing it to certify that she or he is the victim of "bona fide" incidents of actual or threatened domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, as defined and described in VAWA.
2. It must include the name of the perpetrator.
3. It must be provided within 14 business days unless the housing agency or owner requesting the form extends the deadline.

VAWA provides the victim the alternative of providing the housing agency or owner one of the following types of documentation:

1. A local police or court record
2. Documentation signed by a victim service provider, an attorney, or a medical professional from whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. The signer must attest under penalty of perjury (a) that the abuse the victim has suffered is a bona fide incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking and (b) that the victim has signed or approved the documentation.

Failure on the part of the victim to provide certification within the allotted time voids the protections provided by VAWA.

Confidentiality

ANY information provided to a housing agency or owner by a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking must be kept in confidence. No information or documentation may be entered into any shared database nor provided to any related entity except under the following conditions:

1. The victim requests or consents to the disclosure in writing.
2. The disclosure is required for use in an eviction proceeding.

VAWA Protection for Public Housing & Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Assistance Applicants

A Public Housing Agency (PHA), owner, or landlord may not deny admission to an applicant (male or female) who has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence sexual assault or stalking if the applicant otherwise qualifies for assistance or admission.

To qualify for public housing or housing choice voucher assistance, all applicants, including victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, must, at a minimum:

- meet the local PHA's definition of "family"
- Be income eligible;
- Have at least one family member who is a U.S. citizen or has eligible immigration status;
- Pass criminal background screening;
- Have no outstanding debt to the PHA; and
- Meet all other local PHA screening criteria.

Some, but not all, PHAs give preference to applicants who are victims of domestic violence. If you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking, ask if the PHA gives this preference. If they do, the PHA may request that you provide a certification documenting the situation. If you fail to provide requested certification within 14 business days after receiving the request, your request for a preference may be denied. Reporting incidents of domestic violence, dating violence sexual assault or stalking to law enforcement, victim's rights advocates, and the PHA may help preserve your housing rights. There are two areas of protection for those persons seeking or receiving assistance under the federally funded public housing or housing choice voucher program.

1. Denial of Assistance—The law provides that you cannot be denied assistance because you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking if you are otherwise qualified to receive such assistance.
2. Termination of Tenancy or Assistance—The law further protects those who are currently receiving federal housing assistance from losing assistance or housing solely on the basis of their status as a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

If the perpetrator is a member of the victim's household, the agency administering the voucher or public housing programs has the authority to require the individual to leave the household as a condition of providing continued assistance to the remaining members of the family. Additionally, if state law allows, the housing agency has the authority to bifurcate a lease, or divide it into two parts to deal with family members who engage in criminal acts of physical violence against family members or others. Bifurcation would allow the housing agency or owner to take eviction or termination action against a perpetrator of physical violence without penalizing the victim.

Housing agencies and owners retain the authority to terminate the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of a victim under either of the following conditions:

1. The termination is for a lease violation premised on something other than an act of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking against the victim and the housing agency or owner is holding the victim to a standard no more "demanding" than the standard to which other tenants are held.
2. The housing agency or owner can demonstrate an "actual and imminent threat to other tenants or those employed at or providing service to the property" if the tenancy, occupancy, or program assistance of the victim is terminated.

You may want to check with your state and/or city for most current state and local laws protecting victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. VAWA 2013 explicitly added "sexual assault" to the list of violent crimes covered.
